

CMEE / T³ Regional Conference

Hosted by: CME² (Utah Consortium for Mathematics Educational Enhancement) and T³ (Teachers Teaching With Technology)

Mark your calendars for February 23-24, 2007
Cottonwood High School, 5717 S 1300 E, Salt Lake City

The T³ program will host this two-day Regional Conference. T³ conferences are open to all grades to University educators interested in using educational technology to enhance the teaching and learning in Mathematics and Science.

Attendees can count on networking with teachers from across the US and abroad; learning from experienced educators; and participating in hands-on and demonstration sessions for new and experienced educators. You'll receive lots of great classroom activities and ideas, along with the latest news on TI technology.

Keynote Speaker -Tim Kanold: Timothy D. Kanold, Ph.D., is currently the superintendent at Adlai E. Stevenson High School in Lincolnshire, Illinois. He served 17 years there as Director of Mathematics and Science. Tim is the co-author of 27 mathematics textbooks for students in grades 6 to 12, written for McDougal Little and McMillan McGraw/Hill Publishing Companies beginning in 1988. He continues to write and present for the National Council Teachers of Mathematics, the National Council of Supervisors of Mathematics, AASA, ASCD, NASSP, NSDC, and a wide variety of state-level leadership organizations, including those of Arizona, California, Colorado, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Illinois, Florida, New York and Texas. Highly motivational as a speaker and humorist, Tim has presented more than a thousand talks and seminars nationally and internationally over the past decade, focusing primarily on systemic change initiatives that create greater equity and access for all children.
