

MY INTERVIEW

By Brianna Ballegooie

FAMILY BACKGROUND

I am interviewing my grandma, Lynn. I asked her how long she has lived in Utah, and she said she has lived in Utah for 64 years. I asked her if she has lived in other states or countries, but she hasn't. I asked her where and when she was born. She said she was born on November 21, 1944, and she was born in Salt Lake City. I asked her what her parents nationalities were, and she said that her dad was Swiss-German and her mom was Norweigen. I asked her what job her father had and she said he was an industrial insulation.

HOMES

She said her first house was small and it was pink. She said her house is still standing today. Her house was located 2nd south 8th west, Salt Lake City. She said her house did have indoor plumbing and electricity. Her house was heated with a furnace. She said her family kept the food cold with a ice box. Her family did have a telephone.

CHILDHOOD

She said her favorite childhood memory was traveling. When she was a child the girls wore dresses, and the boys wore pants and a shirt. She said she did have chores to do, and they were doing dishes, dusting, ironing, and sweeping the porch. For fun and entertainment she, went to the movies and played outside. Her family got together for birthdays and holidays.

SCHOOL

The schools in her childhood were small. She had to study math, English, reading, and writing. She was assigned homework. She lived across the street from her school. She walked to school.

RECREATION

The type of movies she saw were Elvis. She said her first car was big. The radio station she listened to was KSL radio. She listened to Elvis.

NATION AND WORLD

The problem in America when she was young was a fight for space with America and Russia. The war she remembers was World War 2. the major changes are an end to communism and advances in technology.

THE END

