- Acting – (Playing) The student will act in informal presentations.

Drama Content Objectives

- I can listen attentively to an adult tell a story and identify the characters, setting and events.
- I can explore characters, setting and events in several stories.
- I can listen and respond to others.

Vocabulary students should use

- Character: person animal, or object in a story.
- Setting: the place the story happens.
- Events: what happens in a story.
- Pantomime: the telling of a story without words, by means of bodily movements, gestures, and facial expressions.

Lessons (Activities)

Story Time Mime: Before you read a story, look through the book and assign students to play all of the roles. Not all students need roles for each story time, but if you want to increase the number of active children, assign some children to be inanimate things such as wind or a table in the story. As you read, have the children act out the story in mime. Choose more bashful children to be the inanimate objects, so they can work up to being more active mimes.

Drama/ Common Core Language Objectives

- Listen to a story and retell the story changing the characters, setting, or events in the story.
- Engage in retelling this changed story through pretending to be the characters and acting out the story.

- Imitate: copy or reproduce voice or movement qualities.

Lessons (Activities)

Acting Out a Story: Kindergarten children love listening to their favorite story and often want to hear it over and over again. Add a twist to story time by having your students act out their favorite story after hearing it. Choose to have them reenact the entire story or just their favorite part. Create a performance of a favorite fairy tale or children's book that can be shared with the class or the entire school. Classic stories like "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" and "The Three Little Pigs" are simple enough for kindergarten students to act out. Have students imitate the sound and movements of the characters.

Drama Content Objectives

- I can pretend play and create a space for it.

Vocabulary students should use

- Character: person, animal, or object in a story

Lessons (Activities)

- Pantomime: Pantomime teaches children how to act out a story without using words. Children are only allowed to use hand gestures, facial expressions, and body movements to convey the action of the story. For example, have them act out opening a special present, eating a bowl of something that tastes disgusting, taking a rambunctious dog for a walk, or a monkey eating a banana. Until they are confident enough to perform in front of the entire class, have the children all pantomime at the same time so that no one feels self-conscious.
- Costuming: Once children are able to pantomime, use a box of clothing to explore what a character might wear.

Drama / Common Core Language Objectives

- In a class discussion talk about what it was like to pretend to be a character in a story.
