

Article V.B.3. District Office and/or School Communications, Reports, & Information

All reports, publications, communications, etc., from schools and/or from the divisions of the District office should be properly identified by District, school or division, date, and the originator of the communication.