

Article V.C.10. Advertising and Distributing Information

A. Statement of Policy for Non-School and Non-District Materials

Schools are not a public forum for the distribution of non-school information. Except as specifically provided in this policy, companies, organizations, and individuals from outside the district may not use the schools or other District facilities for the posting or distribution of flyers, advertisements, bulletins, newspapers, posters, coupons, or any other materials.

1. Governmental Publications

The posting or distribution of materials advertising community youth, recreational, or any other programs sponsored by governmental agencies (e.g., county recreation) is allowed for education related purposes. Individuals representing or affiliated with governmental agencies must secure written approval from the District prior to taking materials to the school. Upon receipt of written approval from the District, principals shall determine the time, place, and manner for the distribution of the materials.

2. School Publications

School athletic programs, school calendars, school newspapers, yearbooks, and other similar school publications may contain commercial advertising. All such printed advertising must be approved in advance by the school administration based on the terms of this policy.

3. Private Student Programs

Private organizations that provide opportunities that directly benefit District students and families, provide development for Utah High School Activities Association sanctioned programs, and do not interfere or compete with school sponsored programs may request permission to disseminate information. Private organizations must obtain written approval from the District prior to taking materials to the school. Upon receipt of written approval from the District, principals shall determine the how and when materials are distributed.

34. Elementary School Book Programs

Flyers related to elementary school book programs (e.g. Troll Books, Weekly Readers, Scholastic, etc.) will be allowed according to the terms of this policy at the discretion of school administrators.

4.5. School Pictures

Student photo information packets may be distributed to students at the discretion of school administrators.

5-6. Incentives

Coupons which grant free access to events or free prizes may be accepted from private entities and used as student incentives at the discretion of school administrators.

B. Student Contests

Express prior principal approval, in consultation with School Leadership and Improvement Services, is required for individuals or entities that seek to have District students participate in any type of contest (e.g., read-a-thon, walk-a-thon). The activity must have positive implications for student learning and must be compatible with Granite School District and Utah State Board of Education curriculum guidelines. Contests or programs whose primary emphasis is the promotion of a business or organization will not be approved for use in the schools.

C. Bus Advertising

Bus advertising is permitted consistent with state statutes and rules. Bus advertising shall be age appropriate and consistent with the District's mission and shall conform to the restrictions in Section E below. Bus advertising may not cover, obscure, or interfere with bus lights or other mechanical or safety functions of the bus and must conform to the technical requirements of Utah Admin. Code, R909-3-3.

D. Political Signs

Political signs are prohibited on District property with the exception that political signs may be posted at the location and during the time that a political party or candidate is utilizing District facilities pursuant to the District's rental policy pursuant to Administrative Memorandum Number 42 and Fiscal Policy Manual §13, Use and Rental of School Facilities. In the event political signs are allowed under such an exception, political candidates, campaign organizers, and political signs shall comply with the requirements of the State Election Code, and political signs shall be promptly removed after political events.
